

Rekindling the Fire
FOR MISSIONS

— ALUMNI HOMECOMING —

Hartland Statements

Our Vision

To have Hartland alumni serving in every nation, supporting the mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church to prepare the world for Christ's soon return.

Our Mission

To equip entrepreneurial-minded missionaries to transform the world through Christ.

MADISON 2.0

This model of education was the first one that offered a wholistic education that truly prepared students to be entrepreneurial ministry leaders, or self-supporting missionaries as they used to call it. Ellen G. White declared that if other Adventist schools would follow this model, "we as a people would be a spectacle to the world, to angels, and to men..."—Ellen G. White, Pamphlet 119: "An Appeal for the Madison School," p. 2.

We want to see that happen at Hartland.

Madison 2.0 is Hartland's initiative to implement the genius educational model from Madison College in a 21st century setting.

Speakers' Bios and Workshop Information

John Bradshaw

John Bradshaw attended Hartland College in '93 and is now the president of It Is Written, a media evangelism ministry based in Collegedale, Tennessee. It Is Written programs have been filmed on six continents and are viewed globally, and on It Is Written's own channel, It Is Written TV. Pastor Bradshaw has held more than 100 evangelistic series in cities around the world. He is thankful to work alongside a dedicated team of people committed to sharing the everlasting gospel. He is married to Melissa ('92), and they have two children.

Pastor Bradshaw will be presenting two messages titled "The Best Defense" and "Faith at the End of Time."

Jermaine Gayle

Jermaine Gayle ('15) is a native of the lovely island of Jamaica. He currently serves as senior pastor of the University Seventh-day Adventist Church in Michigan. Jermaine is married to Asenath ('15), who serves as secretary for the Ministerial Department. They both have a passion for souls, and this passion has led to their participation in various aspects of community life. Jermaine serves as chaplain for the East Lansing Police Department as well as advising leaders serving in his local community. He enjoys painting, biking, and reading as many books as he can get his hands on. He is currently doing a master's degree online at Andrews University. Between ministry, school, and homelife, he loves meeting people and learning their stories.

Pastor Gayle will be presenting a message titled "Here I Am, Lord...Send Someone Else."

Chris Buttery

Australian-born Chris Buttery is a '96 pastoral evangelism graduate of Hartland College. Pastor Buttery has served the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Canada and the US for 25 years as both a publishing leader and pastor. He has developed a website of Christian living resources and produced two TV broadcast programs with local and international reach. Chris and his wife, Jennifer ('94), have three adult children.

Pastor Buttery will be presenting a message titled "True to the End."

Don Ball

Don Ball ('10) and his wife, Barbara, were employed at Hartland Institute from 2006–2012. While there, he worked full time as dean of men and completed a bachelor's degree in Pastoral Evangelism. Also during that time, he traveled on several preaching engagements to Africa, China, Hawaii, and much of North America. After graduation, he worked as an associate pastor with the Northern New England Conference and was a director of a plant-based restaurant (center of influence). While in Maine, Pastor Ball also completed a Master's in Pastoral Ministry from Andrews University. Since then, he has worked as a full-time pastor, evangelist, and mentor in both Maine and Pennsylvania.

Pastor Ball will be presenting a message titled "The Presence of the Lord."

Douglas Na'a

Douglas Na'a ('04) currently serves as the director of SALT (Soul-winning And Leadership Training), which is the partnership school of evangelism between It Is Written and Southern Adventist University. He and his wife, Meliana, live in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Pastor Na'a will be presenting a message titled "Rekindling the Fire ."

Raluca McRoberts

Raluca (Ancu) McRoberts ('96) grew up in Romania under the communist regime of Ceausescu. At the age of 17, after the fall of communism, she became a Seventh-day Adventist. After attending Hartland College, she worked for It Is Written for five years with Mark and Teenie Finley. She holds an MA in Biblical Counseling as a means for helping her in her evangelism work: speaking, training, equipping, and inspiring churches. Raluca and her husband, Joe, have two children, and their greatest passion is to serve Jesus, His church, and the community wherever they live.

Raluca McRoberts will be presenting workshop messages titled "Sharing the Warmth: The Power of Hospitality" and "The Disciplined Pursuit of Less: Time Management Tips."

Joaquin & Martha Cardona

Martha Cardona Castañeda graduated from Hartland College in 2014 with a bachelor degree in Health Ministry. In 2019 she married Joaquín Cardona G., a Mexican pastor, and they both united their passions in ministry. She has an amazing story on healing from childhood trauma, restoring mental health, finding a strong identity, and building stronger, healthier relationships. She and her husband conduct educational classes in public schools on identity, relationships, addictions, and other similar topics, and she also gives classes and personalized counseling for ladies. They are both very passionate about reaching souls for the kingdom and keeping a strong, thriving marriage, and they love to travel as well!

Joaquin & Martha Cardona will be presenting workshop messages titled "The Journey to Emotional and Spiritual Healing and Freedom," Parts 1 & 2.

Sheri Trueblood

Sheri Trueblood graduated from Hartland College in 1999, majoring in Bible instruction and minoring in health ministry. She has served for over 15 years in health ministries in the US and abroad in lifestyle centers, schools, restaurants, clinics, and community health programs. Currently, she is a part-time Bible worker for the Berkeley Springs SDA Church and works part time at the Beehive Cafe, an SDA restaurant and center of influence in Berkeley Springs, West Virginia.

Sheri Trueblood will be presenting workshop messages titled "Reaching Your Community Through Health Ministries," Parts 1 & 2.
